Franklin Is One of the “Top 100 Best Places to Live in America”!

Money magazine has named Franklin, Wisconsin, as one of the “Top 100 Best Places to Live in America”! Franklin ranked No. 90 for 2007. Criteria focused on smaller places that offered the best combination of economic opportunity, good schools, safe streets, things to do, and a real sense of community. Middleton, Wisconsin, was this year's winner.

“This is the second major award that the City of Franklin has received this year”, stated City Development Director Doug Wheaton, following international recognition from the “North American City of the Future” Award that was announced in the April/May issue of the Financial Times FDI Magazine. Franklin is the largest city in Wisconsin to attain more than 10% population growth since the 2000 census.

COMMUNITY EVENTS

Fair Housing Training Seminar

September 18, 2007—6 p.m. to 8 p.m.
Franklin Public Library, Fadrow Room A

The City of Franklin will be hosting a Rental Management Training Seminar for property owners and managers. Every landlord in the City of Franklin is encouraged to attend. The seminar will be conducted by staff of the Metropolitan Milwaukee Fair Housing Council. Federal, State, and local fair housing laws grant all persons equal opportunity in the sale, rental, insurance, and financing of housing. Under these laws it is unlawful to deny or treat persons differently based on their membership in one or more of the following classes: race, color, sex, national origin/ancestry, religion, age, disability, marital status, income, sexual orientation, or family status. This seminar will provide an overview of the State, Federal, and local fair housing laws and discuss how rental property practices may be implemented to be in compliance with the laws.

The training seminar will be held from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. on Tuesday, September 18, 2007, in the Fadrow Meeting Room located at the Franklin Public Library, 9151 W. Loomis Road, Franklin, Wisconsin.

Please contact Megan Kemmet of the Metropolitan Milwaukee Fair Housing Council at 414-278-1240 for more information.

Beer Barons of Milwaukee

Monday, September 24, 2007—7 p.m.
Franklin Public Library
9151 W. Loomis Road, Franklin

Find out what the beer makers were really like who made Milwaukee famous! The program features John Eastberg, Senior Historian at Milwaukee's Historic Pabst Mansion, who will talk about the history of the Milwaukee beer industry and tell stories and show slides of such well-known brewers as Pabst, Schlitz, Miller, and Uihlein at both work and play.

*Captain
 Frederick Pabst*

This program is free and open to the public. To sign up in advance, please stop in at the Franklin Public Library or call 425-8214 beginning Monday, August 27th.

Exposure Art Exhibit

The Franklin Public Library, in conjunction with Interfaith Older Adult Programs, will host the "Exposure Art Exhibit" for the month of August. "Exposure" is a juried, traveling exhibit that starts in May and travels to a new location each month until the end of April of the following year. Artists must be 55 years of age when the art was created, and the artist must reside in Milwaukee, Ozaukee, Waukesha, Washington, or Racine County.

The artists use a variety of mediums with the most common being acrylics and watercolors. The art varies from still life, to portraits, to outdoor, landscapes, and nature scenes.

If you are an artist and would like to receive an entry form for the 2008 Exposure Exhibit, call Anne Dow at 414-220-8660.

Stop by and see what these artists have created!

Wisconsin Barns— History & Heritage Run Deep

October 3, 2007—6:30 p.m.
Franklin Public Library
9151 W. Loomis Road

Times are changing and many of the old barns are being destroyed for "bigger and better". Tom Laughlin, producer of the DVD "Wisconsin Barns: Touchstones to the Past", will help you understand the origins of the American barn as it nurtured our development as a Country and provide insights into the history and heritage we all share in them.

Some of the questions he will address are:

- ◆ Why are old barns important to our Country?
- ◆ Where did barns begin and why are they changing?
- ◆ How many different types of barns are there?
- ◆ Why are barns red?

A free program open to the public. To sign up in advance, please stop in at the Franklin Public Library or call 425-8214 beginning Monday, August 27th.

DIAL 9-1-1 FOR ALL EMERGENCIES!

Fire Dept. Non-Emergency—425-1420

Police Dept. Non-Emergency—425-2522

Emergency Medical Minute

As we settle into the “Dog Days of Summer”, the Franklin Fire Department wishes to remind you of some heat illness emergencies that are frequently encountered at this time of year. When the body’s mechanisms to decrease body heat are overwhelmed and the body is unable to tolerate excessive heat, heat illness develops in the form of Heat Stroke, Heat Exhaustion, and/or Heat Cramps. All three forms of heat illness may be present in the same patient.

Heat Cramps are painful muscle spasms that occur after vigorous exercise. Sweat produced during strenuous exercise, particularly in a warm environment, causes a change in the body’s electrolyte, or salt, balance. This results in the loss of essential electrolytes from body cells causing cramping.

To alleviate the symptoms of heat cramps, take the following steps:

- ◆ Consider calling 911 and remove the patient from the hot environment, including sunlight. Loosen any tight clothing. Rest the cramping muscles by having the patient sit or lie down until the cramps subside. Replace fluids with water or a diluted balanced electrolyte solution, such as Gatorade.

Heat Exhaustion is the most common serious illness caused by heat. It is the result of the body losing so much water and so many electrolytes through very heavy sweating that hypovolemia (fluid depletion) occurs. Those who work or exercise vigorously and those who wear heavy clothing in a warm, humid, or poorly ventilated environment are particularly prone to heat exhaustion. The signs and symptoms of heat exhaustion are as follows:

- ◆ Onset while working hard or exercising in a hot humid or poorly ventilated environment and sweating heavily.
- ◆ Onset even at rest in elderly and infant age groups.
- ◆ Cold, clammy skin and dry tongue and thirst.
- ◆ Dizziness, weakness, or faintness with accompanying nausea or headache.
- ◆ Pulse is often rapid.
- ◆ Body temperature can be normal to slightly elevated.

To treat a patient with suspected heat exhaustion, call 911 and follow these steps:

- ◆ Remove any excessive layers of clothing, particularly around the head and neck.
- ◆ Move the patient promptly from the hot environment, preferably into an air-conditioned environment.
- ◆ If you and the patient are outdoors, move out of the sun.
- ◆ Have the patient lie down and elevate his or her legs.
- ◆ Loosen any tight clothing and fan the patient for cooling.
- ◆ If the patient is fully alert, encourage him or her to sit up and slowly drink water. Never force fluids on a patient that is not fully alert or lying down.

Untreated heat exhaustion can lead to heatstroke. Untreated heatstroke can result in death.

Heatstroke, the least common but most serious illness caused by heat exposure, occurs when the body is subjected to more heat than it can handle, and normal mechanisms for getting rid of the excess heat are overwhelmed. The body temperature then rises rapidly to the level at which tissues are destroyed. Heatstroke can develop in patients during vigorous physical activity or when they are outdoors or in a closed, poorly ventilated, humid space. It also occurs during heat waves among individuals (particularly the elderly) who live in buildings with no air conditioning or with poor ventilation. It may also occur in children who are left unattended in a locked car on a hot day.

Many patients with heatstroke have hot, dry, flushed skin because their sweating mechanism has been overwhelmed. However, early in the course of heatstroke, the skin may be moist or wet. A person can have heatstroke even if he or she is still sweating. The pulse is usually rapid and strong at first, but as the patient becomes increasingly unresponsive, the pulse becomes weaker and the blood pressure falls. Recovery from heatstroke depends on the speed with which treatment is administered. Emergency treatment of heatstroke has one objective: Get the body temperature down by any means available. Call 911 and:

- ◆ Move the patient out of the hot environment.
- ◆ Set air-conditioning to maximum cooling.
- ◆ Remove patient’s clothing.
- ◆ Apply cool packs to the patient’s neck, groin, and armpits.
- ◆ Cover the patient with wet towels or sheets or spray the patient with cool water and fan him/her.

No Parking-Fire Lane signs designate areas that must remain clear of parked vehicles in case a fire or other emergency should occur at that location. These areas often contain the location of critical firefighting needs such as fire hydrants, the connection to the fire sprinkler system for the building, or the area is necessary to position a fire engine or other emergency vehicle in order to gain access into that particular building. Please do not block areas that are designated as No Parking-Fire Lane.

Citizen Law Enforcement Academy

Chief Rick Oliva and the Franklin Police Department announce the second Citizen Law Enforcement Academy to be held at the Franklin Police Department starting Wednesday, September 5, 2007, and continuing each Wednesday evening, ending Wednesday, November 21, 2007. Each Wednesday night class runs from 6:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m.

Citizens will learn about law enforcement procedures, operations, equipment used by your Police Department, and more. Classes are instructed by Police Officers serving your community. Class size is limited to 14 participants that must be 18 years of age by September 5, 2007.

For more information, questions, or an application, please contact Sergeant Eric Schroeder at eschroeder@franklinwi.gov.

Your Health Matters

(Clinics held 1st and 3rd Wednesdays, 2:30 p.m. to 5 p.m.)

Schedule Your Flu Vaccine

The best time to get your flu vaccination is late October thru December. Protection from the flu vaccine begins 2 weeks after it is given and lasts 6 or more months. The flu season begins late December, peaks the month of February, and lasts throughout April. Thus, if given too soon, you won't be protected when you need it most!

Children:

- City of Franklin residents 6 months of age and older are eligible for flu vaccine.
- Children less than 9 years of age need 2 doses if they have not received the vaccine in previous years or if they received only 1 dose in their first year of vaccination.
- The vaccination fee for children 6 months through 18 years of age is $10 for those requiring 1 dose and $15 for those requiring 2 doses.

Adult:

The vaccine fee is $25 for adults 19 and over.

Seniors:

- For seniors 65 and older, Medicare covers the cost of this vaccine.
- Seniors with a HMO should receive their vaccine through their provider. They can receive the vaccine at the Franklin Health Department for a cost of $25.
- For any claims rejected by Medicare, clients will be billed. Seniors must bring their Medicare insurance card.

Adult Flu Clinic Dates, Times, and Location

*Tuesday, October 16, 2007	9 a.m.-3:45 p.m.	Library

by calling the Franklin Health
Department at 425-9101.

Celebrate Family Day-September 24th

Family Day—A Day to Eat Dinner with your Children™ is a national movement, launched by The National Center on Addiction and Substance Abuse at Columbia University (CASA) in 2001, that encourages parents to frequently eat dinner with their kids and be involved in their children's lives. CASA's 2006 report, The Importance of Family Dinners III, found that compared to kids who have fewer than 3 family dinners per week, children and teens who have frequent family dinners are: at 70% lower risk of substance abuse; half as likely to try cigarettes or marijuana; one-third less likely to try alcohol; and half as likely to get drunk monthly.

For more information about Family Day, log onto www.CASAFamilyDay.org.

Franklin Youth Coalition

The Franklin Youth Coalition has been active in our City since 1999. A Franklin High School student became determined to start a coalition in the fall of 1998. After planning meetings, the idea became a reality with the first Youth Coalition meeting taking place in May 1999 with five members attending. The group has continued to grow and participate in more activities. Currently, the Franklin Youth Coalition has a mailing list of over 100 that includes adults from various community groups as well as high school and middle school students. The mission of the group states:

The Franklin Youth Coalition is a group of 7th through 12th grade students who:

- ⇒ are positive role models for younger students,
- ⇒ promote healthy decisions especially related to alcohol and tobacco,
- ⇒ take positive action toward a tobacco-free Wisconsin, and
- ⇒ provide community activities that are alternatives to tobacco and alcohol use in the Franklin community.

The Franklin Youth Coalition offers peer education in the schools, free family movie nights at the Library, school extra-curricular activities, games for children at community events, and more! The group has also had a float in the Franklin 4th of July parade for the past 6 years.

Coalition members continue to be a part of this group because they feel accepted and the group has a positive mission. The Franklin Youth Coalition is open to middle and high school students. Call 427-7531 for more information.

HPV Now Available for 19-26 Year Olds

The Franklin Health Department is now offering HPV, the human papillomavirus vaccine, to 19-26 year old females. Up until now, it was only available to girls 12-18 years of age at no cost through the Vaccine for Children Program. This vaccine protects against 4 types of the human papillomavirus associated with cervical cancer and genital warts. For 19 to 26 year olds, the 3-dose series costs $385 for residents and $415 for non-residents. Payment in full is required prior to making appointments. For a fee, HPV is also available to those who have started the series and need to complete 1 or 2 doses.

Family Programs:

Franklin Public Library Family Programs are designed for the whole family to attend and perhaps participate. What a great way for a family to spend the evening together from grandparents to parents and children. The Library sponsors these programs once a month during the school year. Registration is not required for these FREE programs.

The Magic of Rondini - September 19th, 7 p.m.

Rondini is a full-time professional magician with almost 30 years of performance experience. He includes magic to music, balloon animals, audience participation, live animals including a 40" parrot, a live bunny, and a drawing of a library book which comes to life!! Rondini will show how libraries are "magical" places, as he got his start in magic at age 12 by reading a book from the Menasha Library.

Rails & Trails - October 11th, 7 p.m.

Join Colin O'Brien for a musical journey highlighting songs and stories of the Old West, the Railways, and the characters found along the way.

Would You Pass the US Citizenship Test?

The Franklin Public Library Reference Librarian gets asked many questions everyday. One example is on U.S. Citizenship. The Library has both online access and books that deal with becoming a U.S. citizen. Among the hurdles that U.S. citizenship applicants must clear is a test on American history and government. The test typically consists of 10 questions selected from a list of 144 available on the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Service's website (www.usimmigrationsupport.org/index.html), although questions other than those listed on the site may be included.

How would you do? The below questions are typical of those asked (answers also shown below):

1. What do the stripes on the American Flag represent?
2. Who said, "Give me liberty or give me death"?
3. How many amendments are there to the Constitution?
4. How many representatives are there in Congress?
5. Who becomes president if the president and the vice president are both unable to fulfill their duties?
6. Who is the current Chief Justice of the United States?
7. The Constitution requires a person to meet three criteria to become president. Name one of these criteria. (Better yet, name all three!)
8. What are the first 10 amendments to the Constitution called?
9. Who wrote The Star Spangled Banner?
10. How many times may a Congressman be re-elected?

Answers: 1. The original 13 states; 2. Patrick Henry; 3. 27; 4. 435; 5. Speaker of the House of Representatives; 6. John G. Roberts, Jr.; 7. A natural-born citizen of the US; at least 35 years old by the time the term begins; have lived in the U.S. for at least 14 years; 8. The Bill of Rights; 9. Francis Scott Key; 10. There is no limit.

Fall Story Time Sessions:

Nursery Rhyme Time—Mondays, September 10, 17, 24, & October 1. Ages 17 months and younger. Walkers at 9:30 a.m., Pre-Walkers at 10:45 a.m. 20-minute structured program/40-minute social time. Sign-up is required. Franklin residents may sign up in person or by phone beginning August 21st; all others may sign up beginning August 22nd.

Lapsitters—Mondays at 6:30 p.m., Tuesdays at 10:15 a.m., Wednesdays at 10:15 a.m. & 2 p.m., or Thursdays at 10:15 a.m. Ages 18 months to 35 months. September 10, 11, 12, & 13 through October 1, 2, 3, & 4. Sessions are approximately 20-30 minutes. Sign-up is required. Franklin residents may sign up in person or by phone beginning August 21st; all others may sign up beginning August 22nd.

Storytimes—Mondays at 6:30 p.m., Tuesdays at 10:15 a.m., Wednesdays at 10:15 a.m. & 2 p.m., or Thursdays at 10:15 a.m. October 8, 9, 10, & 11 through November 12, 13, 14, & 15. Ages 3-5 years old. Hear stories, songs, and do a craft. Each storytime lasts approximately 45-60 minutes. Sign-up is required. Franklin residents may sign up in person or by phone beginning September 12th; all others may sign up beginning September 13th.

Library Tid Bits . . .

- The Library is not responsible for damage to equipment from using CD's, DVD's, CD-ROM's, VHS or audiocassettes borrowed from the library. Please examine each item carefully and read all directions for your equipment before using the item.
- Campbell's Labels. The Franklin Public Library collects Campbell's product labels. These labels allow us to purchase items for the Library. When submitting Campbell's labels, the entire label is needed for soup labels; for other Campbell's products, the label for education is sufficient.
- Coming This Fall—Author Doug Schmidt. Lifetime Franklin resident and publisher of the Ten Pin Journal, Doug Schmidt will be discussing and signing his new book They Came to Bowl: How Milwaukee Became the Ten Pin Capital. "They Came to Bowl" traces bowling's heritage from its early German roots to the sport that made Milwaukee famous. Covering both sport and city, this book looks at bowling from the taverns and saloons that housed recreational games to the sell-out crowds and million-dollar beer sponsorships of televised tournaments. Doug employs wide-ranging research and interviews with popular players to chart the changing face of bowling over the century. Packed with memorable showdowns and improbable heroes, this authoritative text will take you to the lively lanes of Milwaukee and illuminate the sport as a whole. More information will be available late August/early September about Doug's appearance.

The City Applauds ...

Archbishop Timothy Dolan joins Sister Mary Celine Stein and Sister Mary Pat Reilly, Franciscan Sisters of Saint Clare (pictured at left), on June 14th in celebrating the 10-Year Anniversary of the opening of Clare Meadows Apartments. Clare Meadows, located at 7700 South 51st Street in Franklin, offers independent living to those 55 years and older. Residents enjoy many social events together such as cookouts, card playing, bingo, daily prayer and Eucharistic Celebration, trips to Potawatomi Bingo Casino, the Fireside, and much more!

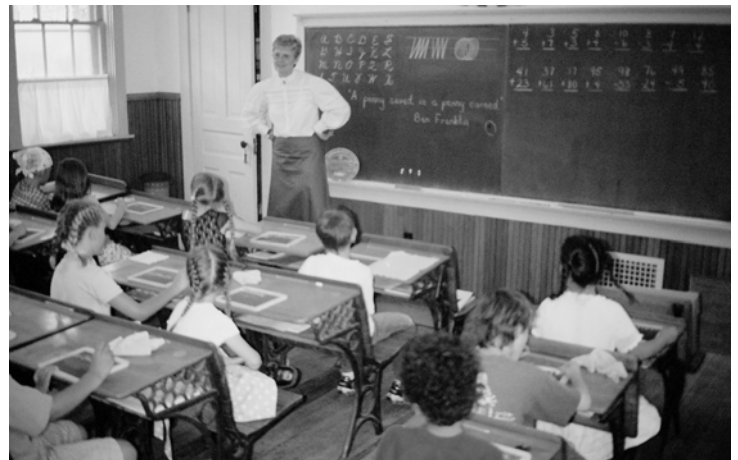

Congratulations Clare Meadows!

The Franklin Historical Society welcomed close to 100 visitors for guided tours of the four historic buildings during the July 4th Celebration in Legend Park. Highlighting the day was the opportunity for guests to test their knowledge of the U.S. Constitution during a short quiz presented by LuAnn Burdick in the Whelan School (adjacent picture). One group of students even returned to retake the 10 question quiz after failing it! All students passed on their second attempt!

The Franklin Historical Society now has a website. History buffs can track Franklin history, make donations, purchase books, and keep abreast of upcoming events presented by the Historical Society. The website can be accessed by going to www.franklinhistory.net.

The Town Hall, St. Peters Chapel, Godsell Cabin, and Whelan School will be open again for tours on Sunday, August 19th, from Noon until 3 p.m. The Chapel can also be rented for weddings and special anniversaries by calling 414-425-0244.
